Let's make a deal CFTC... Either file that ECF with the court FORTHWITH or I will mail it to the court clerk myself in Brooklyn. Only, I will send an additional copies plus other factual findings of legal misconduct directly to the AMERICAN/NYS Bar Association U.S.P.S. by noon tomorrow with formal complaints against you all. Are you all that blind to law and loyal enough to take a fall or mark on your legal record for Gates or past misdeeds? Your team needs to throw Mr. Yale to the lions, because I certainly will in a NY minute.

Choice is yours keep your dirty laundry in Civil court or expand to your regulator. I am being more than fair in my Settlement terms of this issue.

Man up Gates do the right thing and file that ECF. I'll leave it alone after only referencing for this case. However, #1 you deleted the word "FAMILY" I think that we addressed your involvement of anything related but for future reference keep them out your subpoenas and your mouth young man. #2 I'm going full throttle complaint mode with documented court facts/emails to the bar and all within my rights if not filed today. So play fair, be fair and learn to respect your elders as I do David.

Complaints

If you believe a lawyer may have violated the Rules of Professional Conduct, you can write a letter to the appropriate Committee or fill out and submit a form available from their websites.

The form or letter should be as clear, specific and detailed as possible when explaining your complaint. The materials in your complaint should include the names, phone numbers and addresses of you and your attorney as well as copies of any pertinent documents, papers, and other information connected to the complaint. After a complaint is filed, it may be updated with new evidence. If new evidence becomes available after a complaint is dismissed, the complainant may ask that the complaint be re-evaluated.

If the lawyer's office is located in Manhattan or The Bronx, a complainant should contact:

Departmental Disciplinary Committee

Supreme Court, Appellate Division

First Judicial Department

61 Broadway, 2nd Floor

New York, New York 10006

(212) 401-0800, fax: (212) 401-0810

We all have someone above us, FYI: Lawyers have ethical responsibilities to their clients, the courts and others that are identified in the New York Rules of Professional Conduct. If a lawyer meaningfully violates a Rule of Professional Conduct, he or she is subject to discipline administered by a governmental agency affiliated with the court system.

FYI: Unlike your team I do not enjoy screwing up peoples lives which honest and factually proven bar complaints definitely will on your end. So keep that in mind as you reconsider filing my ECF Request. I could of filed with the bar months ago, yet, again, I am not in the business of ruining lives. So be fair, play fair.
